Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) (R2-DL/340/8/0407) (A9673) (04/26)

The Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) programme is a combination of coursework and independent research. It is a high-level business-oriented programme designed for professionals looking to advance their careers and leadership capabilities. Equivalent in status to a PhD, this programme encourages the development of doctoral-level critical thinking, research and decision making skills. Candidates aim to improve modern business practices by applying theory to real business problems and use their dissertation to contribute to new ideas to the field of Business Administration.
