"AeU is the best institution for me to pursue Master in Management programme because I like its flexible mode of learning with only weekend classes once a month and does not interfere with my working hours in running my own business and time with family. AeU's personalised learning system, myPLS, made learning resources easily accessible such as web-based modules and multimedia courseware which are made available for students to view and download. My husband, Izmir Kasyaf bin Abd Rahman, an Assistant Superintendent Police, and also an AeU graduate of 2018 in the same programme has been a wonderful source of influence, support, motivation and testimony for me."
