"AeU was my best choice as it offers a flexible mode of learning where I can study anywhere anytime. It is ideal for me as a working professional and family man. At age 59, I also took advantage of AeU's incentive offer of 50% discount off tuition fee for students aged 55 and over. Such offer encourages more senior citizens to undertake further research study to enrich themselves and to contribute their knowledge to the society. My most rewarding part of my DBA study and research is having acquired a greater depth of knowledge, confidence and professionalism developed in advising many dealers of family businesses on their succession planning."
