SCHOOL OF GRADUATE STUDIES

PhD (Education)

(R2-DL/141/8/0021) (A9152) (01/26) FA

The programme is specifically geared for professional practitioners in education from public or private schools, community or government agencies, training departments, institutions of higher education and other education related settings, aspiring to be researchers. The programme offers reform-minded professionals a unique way to advance their research knowledge and skills, and to address educational problems in a variety of settings. At the end of the programme, students will be part of an exceptional professional network, addressing educational issues in public and private educational settings. We invite you to join us.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Enhance knowledge of theory, developments and practices in the selected specialisation.
- Enhance ability to create conceptual systems that reflect synthesis, coherence and extension of knowledge about education.
- Provide opportunities to engage in academic research, scholarship, systematic inquiry, communicate and evaluate research.
- Enhance ability to understand, utilise and interpret basic principles and methodologies of educational research design and data analysis.
- Enhance understanding of computer technology and its applications in educational settings.
- Provide a graduate experience that is intellectually stimulating, professionally relevant, leading to research that supports decision making and problem-solving around the key issues facing the six areas of education.

ASSESSMENT
Proposal Defence, Thesis and Viva Voce

Learning has no finishing line. The use of English as a language of academia at AeU gives students the cutting edge in learning where most interactive materials and journals are in English. This has effectively increased flexibility in study which part-time students cannot do without. AeU's digital library was a delight. My research was almost exclusively done online at a much lower time-cost. The doctoral colloquia, classroom lectures, and those presented by international guest speakers were very enlightening. They have enlarged my body of knowledge, current educational issues and positively impacted my critical thinking. My PhD journey at AeU was not only refreshing and insightful; but one that I shall always cherish.
