

Asia e University's 7th Convocation

KUALA LUMPUR: The Asia e University here held its 7th convocation at the Putra World Trade Centre here last week, coincidentally on Oct 7.

A total of 3,227 graduates from Malaysia and abroad received their scrolls.

Besides Malaysia, the students also came from Bangladesh, Brunei, India, Indonesia, Myanmar, Namibia, New Zealand, Pakistan, Philippines, Somalia, Sri Lanka, Vietnam and Yemen.

One of the distinguished graduates was Datuk Yong Teck Shing, a Sabahan who received his Master of Science (Management) (By Research) degree during the convocation.

Yong said he was motivated by a burning desire to achieve the highest academic degree possible. He enrolled into the PhD programme in Business Administration.

Hong was former Head of Mission to Taiwan under the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. His wife, Datin Dona Sylvester Chuan, also graduated with a Master of Education degree at the same time.

The most outstanding graduate who won three Prestigious Merit Awards of Excellence was Ho Ken Fatt, 44, who had a MBA.