

Educational and Informative Student Research Seminar

ASIA e University (AeU) recently organised a 'Student Research Seminar' for all their students in AeU main campus, Kuala Lumpur on May 17.

This educational and information research seminar was opened not only to AeU students but also the general public to share their research findings among the student community.

About 150 AeU students came from all over Malaysia such as Sabah, Sarawak, Penang and other states to attend the seminar.

Overall, 28 papers were presented on that particular day. Among the participants, some presenters are from other higher learning institutions such as Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (UKM), Universiti

ANG KWANG TEO

Selangor, (UNISEL), Nilai University, Tunku Abdul Rahman University College and Institut Islam Hadhari, Universiti Kebangsaan, Malaysia.

Ang Kwang Teo, a former senior lecturer at University Selangor and an AeU student of Doctor of Administration (DBA) programme said: "The research seminar was a refreshing experience for DBA students to present and share their progress and provisional findings respective field of research".

"The seminar where I presented my provisional chapters on 'Analysis of Factors Influencing Klang Valley Residential Property Investment in Malaysia', gave me added impetus to try completing my thesis in the shortest time frame possible". AeU is a collaborative multinational university established under the auspices of the 33 Asia Cooperation Dialogue Countries (ACD). All academic programmes are internationally benchmarked, approved by the Malaysian Ministry of Education and accredited by the Malaysian Qualifications Agency.

As one of the leading provider of Open Distance Learning (ODL) in Malaysia, AeU today has an enrolment of more than 20,000 students internationally in 63 countries, and has graduated over 6,000 graduates thus far, having also has a diverse and international community of about 1,000 fellow doctoral students from 46 countries.

Established in 2007, AeU has grown to become one of the leading providers of open and distance learning (ODL) in Asia. As an ODL institution, AeU's focus is to provide accessible and affordable higher education for all.

There are three intakes every year; January, May and September. Though registrations are open based on the month of intakes, registrations for postgraduate (by research) programmes are open throughout the year.
