2,927 AeU graduates receive scrolls

ASIA e University (AeU) held its fifth convocation for 2,927 of its students on Sept 20, 2015.

The ceremony at Putra World Trade Centre, Kuala Lumpur, celebrated those who completed their studies from 78 academic and executive programmes.

The event included 535 international students from Bahrain, Hong Kong, Indonesia, India, Iran, Kenya, United Kingdom (UK), Maldives, New Zealand, Pakistan, Somalia, Sri Lanka, Taiwan, Vietnam and Zimbabwe.

AeU has an enrollment of 4,000 international students from 64 countries, making up 25 per cent of its student population.

This shows that the university is gaining acceptance in the international arena.

The university is offering local programmes in India, Iran, Iraq, Sri Lanka, Vietnam, Cambodia, Indonesia, Bahrain, China, Hong Kong, Pakistan, Bangladesh, the Middle East, Mauritius, Maldives, Nigeria, Ghana, Somalia, Taiwan, Thailand, New Zealand, Denmark and the UK.

The programmes are offered via international educational partnerships.

Following this success, AeU is directing its focus on establishing quality international education as a hallmark.

AeU will continue to strengthen its presence, especially in Asia, while maintaining best practices and high standards in its courses.

Most of AeU's academic programmes at doctoral, Masters and degree levels have been stringently audited and awarded full accreditation by the Malaysian Qualifications Agency.

Meanwhile, the second batch of students from Program Pensiswazahan Guru (PPG) under the Education Ministry also graduated.

A total of 521 PPG graduates received their scrolls. They comprised teachers who have successfully completed their Bachelor of Education (Teaching English as a second language) and Bachelor of Education (Teaching Malay Language in Primary School) with Honours.

During the convocation, Liew Chee Foh received the Chairman's Award in the Master of Education, specialising in Educational Assessment.

Hasmah Jamin received the President's Award for the Bachelor of Education (Teaching Malay Language in Primary School) with Honours.

AeU president and chief executive officer Professor Datuk Dr Ansary Ahmed congratulated all graduates who managed to juggle between studies, work and family commitments.

"The students have met AeU's rigorous academic standards along the way. In achieving their success, they have received support from family, friends, colleagues and employers.

"I hope you will continue to be engaged with AeU, connect with your fellow graduates and be a role model to our students.

"Be proud of your qualification and fly the AeU flag well wherever you are practicing, and make a positive impact on the community you are in," he said.

With eight years of operations, AeU has distinguished itself as a unique and successful institution in open and distance learning.
