

Online Master of Education made easy

A postgraduate degree in Education offered via online has made studies much easier than ever for working adults to earn a recognised qualification without sacrificing their careers.

Online study is an extremely flexible way to learn. You can study from any geographical location at your own convenience and pace as long as you have the internet connection.

A Master's degree in Education offered via online was made easier by Asia e University (AeU), a multi-mode university and leader in open, online and distance education. AeU offered degrees via blended and online learning since 2008. More than 16,000 have graduated from our blended and online programmes.

In just 10 years AeU has established a community of alumni and students who have enjoyed an exceptional online experience.

The academic standards required for all our blended and online programmes are high or at par with those who study on-campus and the qualification you get is of equal value.

Our graduates are employed throughout the world and our degrees are locally and internationally recognised. One of our top most popular programme is Online Master of Education (Online MEd).

This programme commands the highest flexibility and lower course fees. Most students who enrolled in our Online MEd are working professionals with an average age of 35 and older with families.

They would much prefer the type of degree programmes that offers flexibility to fit their studies into already-hectic schedules.

The Online MEd programme as the name denotes is 100 per cent online. You will have unparalleled flexibility to study at your convenience and pace and move your skill set to the next level without having to interrupt your career. All our coursework, class discussions and projects take place in an online environment. There are no fixed lecture or seminar times. The virtual classroom is always open and you don't need to synchronise your study with anyone else.

You can interact with your facilitators and fellow students anytime anywhere, maximising the best use of your valuable time to fit your studies around your work. From the moment your programme starts, you will be in constant discussion with your online academic facilitators, receiving regular feedbacks and also continuous support from our online student support team.

The Online MEd consists of 9 core courses plus 2 courses and a project paper, selected from one concentration area.

You can choose one out of 10 concentration areas to specialise – Early Childhood Education, Teaching English as a Second Language, Educational Management, Educational Psychology, Instructional Technology, Curriculum and Instruction, Assessment and Evaluation, Science Education, Mathematics Education and Teaching Bahasa Malaysia.

The Online MEd can be completed in an accelerated fashion in as little as 18 months or you can spread out the work over a number of years.

The programme is approved by the Ministry of Education, accredited by the Malaysian Qualifications Agency and recognised by the Public Service Department (Jabatan Perkhidmatan Awam).

Liew Chee Foh, a Sabahan, age 56, received the prestigious AeU's Chairman Award at his graduation of his MEd degree in 2015.

He is a tutor in the Medical Assistant Training Programme and also Head of Medical Assistant Programme at Allied Health Science College, Kota Kinabalu.

Liew says, "AeU's digital library's enormous collections of references helped me in doing my research online without the need to go to AeU's physical library. I attributed my success to the support of AeU's lecturers, academic facilitators and my family."

Admissions for AeU's Online MEd is through Regular Entry or through APEL entry which accepts candidates even if they lack the paper qualifications stipulated in the regular entry.

For APEL, candidates are assessed by their prior learning and work experiences to compensate for the lack the regular requirements. Apply now to grab the Merdeka Special fee of RM8,800.00 before the offer ends on 28 September 2018.
