

AeU Revolutionises Online Master of Education

MS Ivy Ngu Mei Ee, Chairman Award winner & MEd Graduate of AeU.

OPEN, online and distance education has garnered new attention and support from the majority of working adults who prefer to pursue their postgraduate degrees online at their own place and pace without sacrificing their careers and busy lifestyles.

Asia e University (AeU), a multi-mode university and leader in open, online and distance education has revolutionised its online programmes with unparalleled flexibility. Learners can study anytime anywhere with access to highly interactive online learning materials 24/7 as long as they have internet connections. They can work around their schedules and are in-charge when and where they want to study.

AeU has been offering blended and online learning since 2008. In just 10 years AeU now has an alumni community of over 16,000 who have graduated from its blended and online programmes. The academic standards for all AeU's blended and online programmes are equal in value to on-campus education. AeU's graduates are employed throughout the world and its degrees are locally and internationally recognised.

AeU's Online Master of Education (Online MEd) degree programme is innovatively designed to cater to the growing market needs of education experts in the industry - such as teachers, school principals, lecturers and other academics wishing to upgrade their current field of work and expertise. This programme is 100% online. All the coursework, class discussions and projects take place in an online environment. There are no fixed lecture or seminar times. The virtual classroom is always open and students don't need to synchronise their studies with anyone else.

Students can interact with their facilitators and fellow students anytime anywhere, maximising the best use of their valuable time to fit their studies around their work. From the moment the programme starts, they will be in constant discussion with their online academic facilitators, receiving regular feedbacks and also continuous support from the online student support team.

Students will have access to AeU's engaging, easy to navigate and rich online learning platform called myPLS. This platform supports and encourages learners to take control in managing their studies via recorded lectures, self-instructional modules, video & audio podcasts. The platform is not only mobile friendly but it also act as a one-stop centre for all the students' needs.

Besides an exceptionally well equipped conventional library, AeU's digital library also has thousands of online resources including academic books, journals, magazine and news articles, etc. which provides globally accessible for a truly personalised learning experience.

The Online MEd consists of 9 core courses plus 2 courses and a project paper, selected from one concentration area. You can choose one out of 10 concentration areas to specialise - Early Childhood Education, Teaching English as a Second Language, Educational Management, Educational Psychology, Instructional Technology, Curriculum & Instruction, Assessment & Evaluation, Science Education, Mathematics Education and Teaching Bahasa Malaysia.

The Online MEd can be completed in an accelerated fashion in as little as 18 months or students can spread out the work over a number of years. The programme is approved by the Ministry of Education, accredited by the Malaysian Qualifications Agency and recognised by the Public Service Department (Jabatan Perkhidmatan Awam).

AeU's qualified online academic facilitators are committed to ensuring that students' online learning experience is enriching and engaging. Interactions with the academic facilitators can be done through live chat, skype, whatsapp, telegram and facebook.

What an MEd Graduate and Award Winner Has To Say

Ms. Ivy Ngu Mei Ee, a Science teacher and graduate of AeU's

MEd in 2016 hails from Sibul, Sarawak. She is also a recipient of AeU's prestigious Chairman Award during the convocation.

Ivy says, "I chose AeU firstly because it is internationally benchmarked and recognised by the Malaysian government. Secondly, I could study from Sibul, my hometown without giving up my job. Thirdly, AeU enable students to have easy access to online learning materials. I can do research from a wealth of online resources from AeU's digital library and submit my assignments online. This saved me valuable time and costs compared to conventional on-campus universities."

"I am grateful to the support and encouragement from my family members, AeU's academic facilitators and staff. I will certainly recommend others to experience the AeU's online learning that had in many ways enriched my work and personal development," she testifies.

Admissions for AeU's Online MEd is through Regular Entry or through APEL entry which accepts candidates if they lacked the paper qualifications stipulated in the regular entry. For APEL, candidates are assessed by their prior learning and work experiences to compensate for the lack the regular requirements.
