

Explore flexible learning with online MBA

PURSUING a Master's in Business Administration (MBA) degree is about shaping your future, but that pursuit shouldn't force you into sacrificing the opportunities you have today.

Asia e University (AeU) has designed an online MBA programme that gives you access to flexible learning and an affordable route without forcing you to put your career or your life on hold.

We bring the classroom to you. You have the advantage of studying at your own time and in any chosen location. You can conveniently access your studies at the comfort of your home, at work or during your travels. We give you a programme that truly adapts to your lifestyle.

Vincent Dairiam, a dual award winner and MBA graduate of 2018, shares his AeU experience.

Aged 40, Dairiam a warehouse analyst with a multinational company, is married with three young children aged four, six and eight. He is an MBA graduate who was awarded the prestigious Chairman's Award and Mahani Zainal Abidin Award at AeU's eight convocation this year.

"I pursued my MBA in 2005 with a different institution as a part-time student but due to unforeseen circumstances, I dropped my MBA studies to focus on my career with a company in Port Klang. In 2012, I migrated to Manjun, Perak to take up a new job as a warehouse analyst with my current company which deals in diversified businesses such as mining, manufacturing, port facilities, and stockyard.

"My new career exposed me to new experiences and different ways in analysing situations to formulate more effective solutions. I love my job but my desire to pursue the MBA never faded," Dairiam said.

"In September 2016, I enrolled in AeU's MBA programme. I chose AeU because I can study fully online without the need to allocate my time to travel to the campus. It was a big advantage for me when I had the flexibility to study at home, during office breaks and while travelling.

"Another plus point is the affordable price and the high quality of the MBA programme which is approved by the Education Ministry and accredited by the Malaysian Qualifications Agency.

"The most rewarding part of my study is the knowledge gained that is applicable to my real work experiences. The modules are interesting and they reflect the current needs in the labour market. The theories I learned could be transferred into the actual working environment and put into practice.

"I am now able to face challenges as they occur in a more confident manner and capable of making quality and sustainable decisions."

Admission for AeU's Master's programmes is through regular entry but one may also go through the flexible APEL entry which accepts candidates even if they lack the paper qualifications stipulated in the regular entry. For APEL, candidates are assessed by their prior learning and work experiences to compensate for the lack of regular requirements.
