Graduands from different countries and nationalities congregating at the PWTC Hall in a colourful and grand convocation ceremony

EIGHTEEN graduated from AeU's doctoral degree programmes comprising nine in the field of business administration, three in education, two with PhDs in ICT and four with Doctor of Business Administration (DBA).

The international doctoral graduates are Dr Jacob Benson Aidoo who (Ghana), Dr Fazalur Rahman and Dr Latesh Kumar KJ (India), Dr Beefun Roodradeo and Dr Vandana R. Veeraragoo (Mauritius) and Dr Nicco Joselito Lopez Tan (the Philippines).

Five outstanding graduates received AeU's Excellence Awards.

Lee who won the President's Award and School Award is grateful for the flexible learning experience which strengthened her skills

Malaysian MBA graduate Vincent Dairiam won the Chairman's Award and Mahani Zainal Award while Sarawakian Leh Siong Lu (Master of Education) won the Chairman's Award and School Award.

"Despite my job with a multi-national company, I am proud to have accomplished my MBA in just two years.

"The MBA is very beneficial as I could apply the knowledge and put in practice the experience gained throughout my learning journey with AeU," said Vincent.

Leh said, "The learning experiences in AeU broadened my perspective as an educator. I get to break barriers in my teaching career and develop my expertise in education."

Winner of the President's Award and School Award with a graduate diploma in early childhood education Lee Chiu Yuan said, "As an assistant principal of a Xaris preschool, the flexible learning experience with AeU fits my busy lifestyle and family obligations. In addition, my 4D elements of success - desire, determination, diligence and discipline - have strengthened my skills."

Rohani's determination enabled her to graduate with a bachelor of education while winning the President's Award.

Another winner of the President's Award and School Award, Adieb Hilmi Widigdo (Bachelor of Information and Communication Technology) from Indonesia, said: "All AeU lecturers are highly competent with up-to-date knowledge, they teach not just with conventional multimedia but all things new in multimedia such as making a game in virtual and augmented reality.

"Where there is a will, there is a way. My learning experience at AeU helped me to explore the latest technique in teaching for me to be a better teacher," said primary school Islamic studies teacher Rohani Su, also a President's Award winner.

Asia e University is a collaborative multinational and multi-mode university established in 2000 under the auspices of 34 Asia Cooperation Dialogue (ACD) countries.

In just 10 years, AeU's cumulative student population has exceeded 30,000, from over 86 countries.

President's Award and School Award winner Adieb from Indonesia lauded his lecturers' up-to-date knowledge and competence.

Today, AeU has over 17,500 graduates worldwide.

More than 3,000 students are taking its programmes at its collaborative learning centres abroad in the Middle East, Europe, Asia and Africa.

Breaking barriers in her career with her education master's degree, Leh is also the winner of the Chairman's Award and School Award.
