

Izdihar: The academic support and e-learning platform at AeU was superb. I'm so grateful that I had chosen AeU to complete my PhD journey as I had experienced the future of education first hand - the MOOC ecosystem.

Flexible approach to a doctorate

ASIA e University (AeU) takes digital and flexible learning to the next level which ultimately, transforms students' lives through education.

The programmes offered at AeU are market-driven and well accepted internationally.

Students can enjoy the flexibility in attending physical class, depend fully on virtual learning or experience both at the same time at AeU.

AeU believes that students should be able to focus on their studies and excel in their career at the same time.

Hence, the university initiated a variety of study modes to suit learners' schedules, needs and lifestyle.

Aggressive in adapting with the latest technology in educating today's generation, AeU uses webinar, Personalised Learners Space (MyPLS) and a knowledge centre.

This personalised combination of both conventional and electronic information resources will benefit students greatly.

According to Dr Izdihar Baharin Md Daud, after dealing with a few obstacles in pursuing his Phd in previous universities, he finally enrolled into AeU as the study mode offered by university fitted perfectly with his busy schedule.

"Armed with a bachelor's degree from a public university, a master's degree from a foreign university and several professional qualifications, I embarked on my PhD journey with AeU in January 2015," he said.

"I was toying with the idea of having a doctorate way back in 2004 and my choice was Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) degree.

"Accepting the offer from AeU was the best academic decision I ever made. Along the way, I enjoyed the flexible learning mode of AeU which suited me perfectly as a busy professional," he said.

the future of education first hand, the MOOC (massive open online courses) ecosystem," added Izdihar.

He said studying in AeU is no walk in the park.

He said the viva voce was an unforgettable experience.

"It was kept under a friendly yet professional atmosphere. I learnt a lot from the comments made by the viva committee," he added.

According to Izdihar, he is very pleased with the outcome of his PhD journey as AeU had transformed his life.

He added that without the help from the AeU's professionals, he might be just another PhD dropout statistic.

AeU is a leading digital and flexible university in Malaysia, and one of the premier Open and Distant Learning institutions in Asia.

Today, AeU has a strong and high-quality education system with a vibrant international focus, the university has 26,000 graduates and nearly 30,000 globally connected students from 100 different countries.
